

EUROPE LECTURE 2016

Discussing Europe's significance

CULTURAL HERITAGE AT RISK?

Protecting cultural heritage in times
of conflict

Monday June 13, 2016

Kloosterkerk, The Hague (Lange Voorhout 4)

Tickets: €9,50 (students, Ooievaarspas €7,-)

More information:

www.europelecture.com

CULTURAL HERITAGE AT RISK?

The Europe Lecture

The Europe Lecture is a frequently recurring lecture on the significance of Europe from a socio-economic, political or cultural perspective. This year's theme of the Europe Lecture is 'Protecting cultural heritage in times of conflict'.

What are the strategies and actions to respond to cultural cleansing, deliberate destruction of culture and illicit trafficking of cultural property? How should the European and international community use international criminal law to combat acts of destruction or damage to cultural heritage?

Speakers

Irina Bokova is the Director-General of UNESCO and official candidate for the position of UN Secretary-General

Silvia Fernández de Gurmendi is the President of the International Criminal Court in The Hague

Sada Mire is a Somali archaeologist and a researcher at the Leiden University.

Practical Information

Date: Monday June 13th, 2016, 17h15

Location: Kloosterkerk, The Hague

Tickets: €9,50 per person

