

Seminar State Aid Compliance

Europa decentraal

Practical experiences at local and regional level

EU law and policy institute Europa decentraal and the University of Leiden invite all who are interested to attend a seminar about State Aid Compliance at the local and regional level (in English). The speakers of the seminar will delve into the legal framework of the EU state aid framework and practical experiences of compliance. Furthermore, Europa decentraal will present what services it provides to local and regional authorities that aim to ensure compliance with and understanding of EU-law.

Seminar State Aid Compliance

WHEN

10th of May 2017
3 pm - 5 pm

WHERE

Naussulaan 12
The Hague

WHO

International community
in The Hague

Program

PZ

Paul Zondag, legal advisor Europa decentraal

After a quick introduction of Europa decentraal, Mr. Zondag will touch upon state aid compliance by local, regional and district water authorities in the Netherlands. Hereafter an analysis of the use of the notification procedures under the General Block Exemption Regulation will be presented.

MA

Maarten Aalbers, phd candidate Leiden University

Mr. Aalbers will highlight some recent developments in EU competition law that are relevant for local and regional authorities. In particular the compliance requirements for local authorities concerning sport and infrastructure and services of general economic interest will be discussed. Moreover the role of authorities in ex ante compliance strategies in both state aid law and antitrust law will be explored.

AS

Ãsã Schuster, senior advisor Europa decentraal

Ms. Schuster will treat frequent topics in state aid law at the local and regional level such as landsales and sustainable climate measures. Furthermore, bottlenecks of state aid law are discussed and how Europa decentraal has made an inventory of these issues.

Attendance is free, but registration via info@europadecentraal.nl is obligatory. Limited seats available.

More information about Europa decentraal? Check: www.europadecentraal.nl.